

RAPPORTE[®] LOAN PROCESSING SOFTWARE
FROM INTERNATIONAL DECISION SYSTEMS[®]

Streamline All Your Loan Processing Steps to Gain Control and Manage Risks

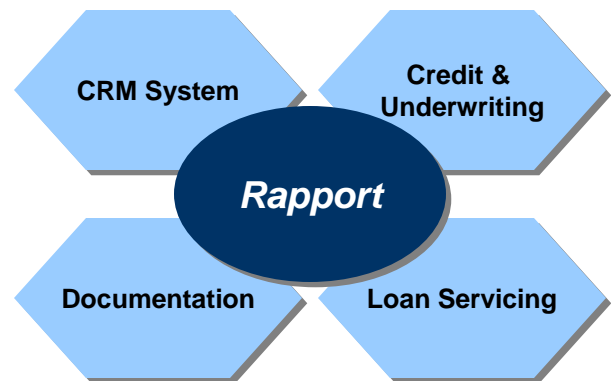

Add Power and Control

Does your current method for processing new loans leave you open to errors and mistakes? Could you improve customer service and risk management if your people had all the information you need to track in a single Web-enabled system? Could you benefit from a tool that enables you to create more dependable, orderly workflows?

With Rapport[®], you can:

- Reduce error and risk by eliminating the manual re-keying of data.
- Use the ability to flow data through an automated workflow to removing manual steps in your process, improving internal communication and productivity.
- Obtain critical information through fast, reliable communication with other internal systems, as well as online external resources.

Gain Control by Automating the Loan Approval Process

Rapport is the comprehensive loan processing solution that simplifies your work and allows you to store all of the information you need to make critical lending decisions. Once a loan application has been entered into Rapport, you can view its current, detailed status at any point in the process. When Rapport is linked directly to your loan servicing system, you ensure data integrity throughout your loan approval process.

- Simplify compliance through better systems integration and data reliability.
- Use Rapport to integrate all of your systems together, to ensure, for example, that your loan documents can be automatically merged from the loan application data.
- Increase profit and reduce risk by making more, higher-quality information available at the point of decision-making.
